The Grouch

He grumbled from morning,
He grumbled till night
And grumble and growl
Was his chief delight.

He grumbled at this
He grumbled at that
He grumbled so much
He couldn't get fat.

The doctor's no good,
The doctor's a frost,
The medicine was thinned
Because of the cost.

The nurses—my goodness!
They don't know a thing—
It takes them an hour
To answer a ring.

The meals were rotten,
The coffee was cold—
Why, even the bread
Was three days old.

His troubles he told
Over and over again—
They were his main topic;
They gave you a pain.

So he grumbled and growled
And kicked so often
He was soon ready
For a six foot coffin.
